

Tell My Story Using the Elements of Fashion Design

What's Your Story?

Write a descriptive story and then design a fashion piece that represents it. It can be a made up story or it can be a true story about you or something or someone you care about. Remember to think about the elements of fashion design and how lights will enhance your story.

Trace the croquis to help sketch your piece. Use the design questions to focus your ideas!