

Tell My Story Using the Elements of Fashion Design

What's Your Story?

Write a descriptive story and then design a fashion piece that represents it. It can be a made up story or it can be a true story about you or something or someone you care about. Remember to think about the elements of fashion design and how lights will enhance your story.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Trace the croquis to help sketch your piece. Use the design questions to focus your ideas!